

TMS 2017

THE WORLD COMES HERE.

Find the Ideal Candidate for Your Open Position:

Attend the TMS2017 Young Professional Job Candidate Poster Session

Date: Monday, February 27, 2017

Time: 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Recent graduates, post-docs, and early career professionals looking for employment in government, industry, and academic settings will present posters showcasing their talents and qualifications at this special session during the TMS 2017 Annual Meeting & Exhibition (TMS2017). Use this opportunity to learn about and meet with high-caliber job candidates to fill open positions at your organization.

Open to all TMS2017 attendees, this special session lets you:

- Meet with job candidates face-to-face
- Fast-track the recruitment process
- Network with early-career professionals

What You'll Learn

Each candidate's poster will provide details on their education, work experience, and research interests. Posters will also list any presentations the candidate will deliver at the meeting, allowing you an opportunity to learn even more about the candidate's research.

TMS 2017

THE WORLD COMES HERE.

Find the Ideal Position:

Submit a Poster for the TMS2017 Young Professional Job Candidate Poster Session

Employers from industry, national laboratories, and universities will be conducting onsite recruiting during this special poster session at the TMS 2017 Annual Meeting & Exhibition (TMS2017). Help them see what you have to offer!

Open to all TMS2017 attendees, this special session lets you:

- Network with professionals who influence hiring decisions
- Gain insight into what employers and search committees want
- Showcase your technical skills one-on-one

About the Posters

Your poster should be an advertisement for you as a candidate. Create a title for your poster and add a short summary (150 words maximum) to describe your education, experience, and career objectives. The poster should not be only about your current research. It can include other research interests you are involved in or future interests.

Please do not submit technical posters here. If you have a technical poster, please submit it to the General Poster Session or the Technical Division Young Professional Poster Contest.

About the Event
